ALDAR Bulldogs and Bostons Application Process

Personal information required. This is very extensive and all must be filled out or application will be rejected.
Adoption fee for my puppies are $3500 plus HST.

1. Submit this application form to aldar@sonicwaves.ca
2. We will review it and contact you if approved
3. Phone conversation and FaceTime video
4. If we agree to work together, a $200.00 deposit will be necessary to keep your spot on the waiting list. This is to deter people from jumping on and off of people's waiting lists and wasting our time.
5. Please pick a breeder that you are comfortable with and stick with them. This deposit is sent via e-mail transfer and does not guarantee you a puppy as things can happen with a litter. If we are unable to supply you with a suitable puppy within a six month period, the deposit will be refunded to you, otherwise the deposit is non-refundable for any reason.
6. This deposit will be applied to the total cost of the puppy.
7. The final payment can be made in cash or e-transfer and the final price will include hst. 8. If your puppy is to be flown the price is $600.00 on top of purchase price. This includes flight, delivery to the airport, crate and extra health certificate needed in order for the puppy to fly.
